

Package Offers

Combine various banking products in special packages tailored to the financial needs of specific client categories.

Quipu Core Banking offers financial institutions the possibility to group a selection of their products in special packages targeted at specific client categories.

Main Features

- No limit on the number of packages created
- Add different kinds of products to the same package
- Packages can easily be edited, adding, removing or changing the products included
- Print a single agreement covering all products in the package
- Create individual, client-specific packages in order to offer special products and services to certain business clients
- Batch account opening (via Excel file) for employees of business clients ordering business packages
- Customisable validators for data loaded from files
- Customisable package quality control
- Activate products and services by fingerprint enrolment